

Green Power from Wind (1996)

Client: An Alberta Electric Utility.

SGA carried out an analysis of green power market options for wind generated power from an Alberta Independent Power Producer for their financial returns and other non-financial issues such as reliability. Green power premiums are investigated both as short-term price premiums or long-term carbon offsets.